

#8CANTWAIT

The Greenville Police Department requires officers to de-escalate situations, when possible, before using force.

Section 4.1.1 of GPD policy specifically states “When time and circumstances reasonably permit, officers shall use de-escalation tactics in order to reduce the need for force.”