

Purpose

The City of Greenville Board of Adjustment is a quasi-judicial body that conducts evidentiary hearings on requests for special use permits, variances, interpretations, reasonable accommodations and appeals of administrative decisions regarding the City's zoning ordinance. Its decisions are final and may be appealed to superior court by writ of certiorari.

How to Participate in a Virtual Board of Adjustment Meeting

Due to the increase in positive infections of the COVID-19 Delta variant virus, the City of Greenville has amended its State of Emergency proclamation. All city appointed boards shall cease in-person meetings and instead conduct electronic meetings until further notice.

VIRTUAL MEETING FORMAT

The virtual Board of Adjustment Meeting will be conducted using the Zoom Meeting platform. You can participate in this virtual meeting using a computer, tablet, or telephone. Participation on Zoom is only required if you are going to make public comments during the public hearing. Otherwise, you can view the meeting streamed live on GTV9 http://greenville.granicus.com/mediaplayer.php?publish_id=13 or Channel 9 on the local Suddenlink cable line up on your television.
